

Easter show around the corner

3/10/15

Vol. 1512

A lot of you are already booked to see At the Foot of the Cross but we wanted to send you a little information so you know what the show is all about. The story this year begins with Jesus encountering his disciples, Peter's mother-in-law, the woman who "touched the hem of His garment," and Mary Magdalene. These characters all become central to the story. The first act is full of Jesus' teaching and reenactments of some very inspirational and poignant moments with each of his followers.

The second act is written to make you feel as though you are right there with Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane, on the cross, and a part of His triumphant resurrection. The insightful story also takes you inside the hearts and minds of some of Jesus' most intimate friends. You'll experience the agonies and personal struggles each endured by their denials, inactions, and inability to step in and reason with those who ultimately killed Jesus on Calvary.

But, ours is a RISEN SAVIOR and the triumph of Jesus' resurrection will have a powerful impact on you and help to strengthen your faith.

This is a musical of course and by clicking on the link below you can listen to some of the beautiful music from At the Foot of the Cross. It is also a "dinner theatre event" and we promise the buffet will be delicious (never a complaint) and the show is likely to be the highlight of your Easter season.

Please also note that our production company will also be producing Steel Magnolias and Godspell this spring. Details are available below. These productions will be held at the Performing Arts Center in Elizabeth City. Both shows are terrific, entertaining, inspirational, and family friendly. Please note that we have 10am matinees on Thursday and Friday morning, April 9 and 10. The local schools are on spring break that week so adults will have the run of the place!! We hope you'll consider bringing your groups – senior, youth and otherwise – to the shows. They are going to be terrific!! See you soon.

OUR EASTER SHOW IN EDENTON

This new Easter musical by Gloria Emmerich revisits the life, death, and resurrection of Christ as you've never seen it before. The depth of Christ's compassion was demonstrated by His willingness to live among the people. His love for us is unending, personal, and eternal. That lonely and distant cross will seem somehow closer than ever before as you witness this stunning portrayal of Christ's last days on earth. Gloria Emmerich's musicals are a perfect blend of humor and realism. In the end, we guarantee you'll know without a doubt that He is the Christ – the Son of the living God!

Performances immediately follow the buffet.

The action is set in Truvy's beauty salon in Chinquapin, Louisiana, where all the ladies who are "anybody" come to have their hair done. Filled with hilarious banter and not a few prickly but humorously revealing verbal collisions, the play moves toward tragedy when, in the second act, the spunky Shelby (who is a diabetic) risks pregnancy and forfeits her life. The sudden realization of their mortality affects the others, but also draws on the underlying strength—and love—which give the play, and its characters, the special quality to make them truly touching, funny, and marvelously amiable company in good times and bad.
