Rocky Hock Easter show is up and running!

3/23/15

Vol. 1516

Our good friends Richard and Emily Perry from Chesapeake always come to our shows on opening day and take photos for us. Richard is a real professional and takes the most amazing shots. He's been doing this for us the past few years and many of the pictures you see in our photo galleries were taken by him. THANK YOU RICHARD AND EMILY...you are true and special friends. We opened the show on Saturday and have presold hundreds more tickets this year than last. That is VERY encouraging. The show is new, exciting, vibrant, and packs more inspiration than you'll be able to contain!! Folks were walking out singing HIS praises on Saturday. We're anxious for you to see this musical!

Remember our offer to let all kids in for just $13.95 (regular price is $22.95) when they are accompanied by at least one adult paying full price. This is a show designed as much for kids as it is for adults. In my "other world" I teach drama to college freshmen and sophomores at College of The Albemarle in Elizabeth City. A SHOCKING number of young people have never seen live theatre. I can't think of a better way to introduce the youth of our area to theatre than at the Rocky Hock Playhouse. Theatre is designed to challenge, inspire, and persuade. What better way to expose folks to the gospel!! See you soon in Edenton!!

OUR EASTER SHOW IN EDENTON

This new Easter musical by Gloria Emmerich revisits the life, death, and resurrection of Christ as you've never seen it before. The depth of Christ's compassion was demonstrated by His willingness to live among the people. His love for us is unending, personal, and eternal. That lonely and distant cross will seem somehow closer than ever before as you witness this stunning portrayal of Christ's last days on earth. Gloria Emmerich's musicals are a perfect blend of humor and realism. In the end, we guarantee you'll know without a doubt that He is the Christ – the Son of the living God!

The action is set in Truvy's beauty salon in Chinquapin, Louisiana, where all the ladies who are "anybody" come to have their hair done. Filled with hilarious banter and not a few prickly but humorously revealing verbal collisions, the play moves toward tragedy when, in the second act, the spunky Shelby (who is a diabetic) risks pregnancy and forfeits her life. The sudden realization of their mortality affects the others, but also draws on the underlying strength—and love—which give the play, and its characters, the special quality to make them truly touching, funny, and marvelously amiable company in good times and bad.
