

Exciting year ahead!

10/13/13

Vol. 1353

I love waking up each morning never knowing what the day will bring. The human spirit is a remarkable thing. And, having the Lord leading and guiding is always the key.

I'm reminded that this time last year we never dreamed Holly would soon be living and working in Africa of all places. Yet, the Lord worked it out every step of the way...and there she is! As I write you she is in the village of Bamenda celebrating with the native tribe that (after a 10 year translation process) finally has a bible in their very own heart language. CLICK HERE to read the newsletter Holly sent out just before leaving on the 6 hour journey to get to Bamenda. Incidentally, if you wish to be placed on Holly's newsletter list just write us and we'll see that you get the very next one that goes out which should be shortly after she gets back to Yaoundé, Cameroon on Thursday.

The attendance at our fall show (The Church Triumphant which closed yesterday) was DOUBLE that of last year's fall musical. Thank you all from the bottom of our hearts. We'll be doing more Gaither musical shows in the future. We know you love their music too and it's very hard to beat!

Remember that we will be doing performances of an extraordinary musical version of A Christmas Carol at the Performing Arts Center on the College of The Albemarle campus in Elizabeth City, NC December 12 – 15, 2013. Yours truly will be playing Scrooge and we have a large cast of actors lined up to make this what we believe will be the best rendition of Charles Dickens' masterpiece you've ever seen. Then, this June we'll also be producing Joseph, the Dreamer at College of The Albemarle. The musical won a DOVE AWARD when it was written. The show is spectacular with beautiful and authentic Israeli and Egyptian sets that will take your breath away. The music is stunning and the story cannot be topped.

OTHER NEWS – We have announced our 2014 season, and boy, is it going to be spectacular! All of you theatre goers are in for a treat. We'll be performing four new major biblical musicals at our dinner theatre location in Edenton next year. In addition, we'll be taking the Easter show to the beautiful Wilson's Mills Baptist Church near Smithfield, NC for two public performances on April 24 at 10am and 2pm. Each of our major Rocky Hock musicals will also be performed in 2014 at Camp Cale (near Hertford, NC) in their brand new beautiful conference center that seats 400 people. You can read details below.

Several of our Christmas performances of A New Born King in November and December are already sold out so be sure to book your tickets soon. We added a performance at 6pm for your convenience on November 23 and another at noon on December 17 to accommodate more folks, plus, we have a Friday performance at noon on December 6 to accommodate all! This true story concerns the lives of a Jewish family hiding from the German occupying forces in war-torn Amsterdam during WW II. To escape the horrors of Nazi persecution, Otto Frank hides with his wife, two daughters, and several others in attic rooms above an Amsterdam warehouse for two years. The beloved "diary" of Anne Frank is brought to life in this Pulitzer Prize winning play that recounts the lives of real people who lived at a time of unspeakable horror for the Jewish population in many European countries.

The story has been brought to life as an exhilarating new musical filled with glorious music, dancing, and heart. Little Women embodies the complete theatrical experience, and is filled with laughter, tears, nostalgia, and hope.
