

One more musical hit!!

9/26/13

Vol. 1351

I know you've heard me say that before...but, judging by the way the audience jumping to their feet at the end of the Gaither musical extravaganza THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT on Tuesday...I don't think it is a stretch to say IT'S A HIT!! It's been years since you've heard some of these GREAT Gaither songs but I promise a rush of memories when you come to the Playhouse this fall. The show runs through October 12. (Oh, and wait till you hear the arrangements...ahh, heaven!)

No shortage of news. Holly leaves for Cameroon, Africa on Wednesday, October 2. Gulp...so much to do...so many details. Her visa is STILL not here. She can't get on the plane without it. The application was submitted in time...they just buried it we discovered this morning. It's supposed to be "in the mail" by tomorrow..." PLEASE WHISPER A PRAYER!!

If you are still contemplating supporting Holly in her two year mission to Africa where she will be working with Wycliffe Bible Translators CLICK HERE and it will take you to the Wycliffe Associates donation page. She's "faithing it" at this point as she's still a bit short of the monthly support goal she requires.

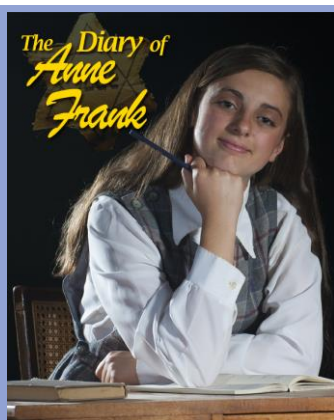

ATTENTION THOSE WITHIN RANGE OF AHOSKIE!!! Most of you know that our production company (Emmerich Theatre Production Company, Inc.) is the backbone of the Rocky Hock Playhouse. We're branching out a bit and producing Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol this December. We have performances in Elizabeth City AND in Ahoskie, NC. We're working now to get the word out to those within driving range of Ahoskie as we have two performances scheduled there in the beautiful and historic Gallery Theatre on December 17 at 1:30pm and 7pm. We know that Ahoskie is much closer to some of you than Elizabeth City...so BOOK NOW and reserve your seats early. If it matters...yours truly will be playing Scrooge. I can't wait. Yes, that is me in the logo below. Grumpy, or what???? Fun! We can't wait. The cast will be large (30 or so) and you don't want to miss this show!! Oh, it's a musical version too!!

Ticket sales for The Church Triumphant are double what they were for last year's fall show. And, sales for The New Born King (our Rocky Hock Playhouse dinner theatre show) are up to over 1000 already...AND IT'S ONLY SEPTEMBER. Boy, have things turned around at the Playhouse.

There's lots of great theatre just around the corner. Remember the shows we are doing at College of The Albemarle coming up in just a few weeks: The Diary of Anne Frank and Little Women (musical version). See the information on these shows below.

This true story concerns the lives of a Jewish family hiding from the German occupying forces in war-torn Amsterdam during WW II. To escape the horrors of Nazi persecution, Otto Frank hides with his wife, two daughters, and several others in attic rooms above an Amsterdam warehouse for two years. The beloved "diary" of Anne Frank is brought to life in this Pulitzer Prize winning play that recounts the lives of real people who lived at a time of unspeakable horror for the Jewish population in many European countries.

Based on Louisa May Alcott's own family experiences (and novel), Little Women, follows the adventures of Jo, Meg, Beth, and Amy March as they grow up in Civil War America. The beloved story of the March sisters is timeless and deals with issues as relevant today as when they were written. The story has been brought to life as an exhilarating new musical filled with glorious music, dancing, and heart. Little Women embodies the complete theatrical experience, and is filled with laughter, tears, nostalgia, and hope.

Every day people ask us how we keep up. Frankly, it's the Lord and the blessed fact that we love what we do...so it doesn't feel like work. Every day's a PLAY – DAY for us. I couldn't do it without the help of Nathan, Mariah, and Gloria. We're the fearless foursome to be sure!! See you soon in Edenton, Elizabeth City, or Ahoskie.
