

Two upcoming Christmas productions

10/31/13

Vol. 1354

The Diary of Anne Frank and Little Women just closed at COA and both were a huge success. I appreciate so many of you who come along and support/enjoy the shows that I direct at College of The Albemarle. The school has honored me in so many ways the past few years and I see God's hand in letting me work there, direct the drama program, and bring back the kind of family entertainment that everyone craves. I'm personally blessed and happy to pass the blessing along to all of you! The COA Performing Arts Center has 8 major shows in their 2013/14 season and I am directing six of them! Our production company (Emmerich Theatre Production Company, Inc. which is based out of Minneapolis, MN) is producing A Christmas Carol and Joseph, the Dreamer. Other remaining shows which I will direct are Rodger's and Hammerstein's Carousel and You're A Good Man Charlie Brown.

Please know that the plays and musicals I produce at the college in Elizabeth City are not the same as the ones we do in Edenton at the Rocky Hock Playhouse. For instance, there are two COMPLETELY different shows for Christmas this year. We are doing Gloria Emmerich's original Christmas musical in Edenton called The New Born King which opens on November 16 and runs through December 17. Then, again, our production company (ETPC) is producing Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol at College of the Albemarle, December 12 – 15. The events in Edenton are always dinner theatres...and the ones in Elizabeth City are "show only."

I am playing the role of Scrooge in A Christmas Carol and looking forward to it!!! Now that my detached retina is well healed I am able to be fully back on stage again. I'm thanking the Lord for that!!

Holly is doing well in Cameroon and has some great stories to tell. CLICK HERE to read the newsletter she has published for November.

Many of the Rocky Hock Playhouse Christmas shows are nearly sold out so don't wait too long to book. Seating is somewhat limited in Edenton with just 210 seats available per performance. The state-of-the-art 1000 seat theatre at College of the Albemarle is much larger but tickets for A Christmas Carol are selling like hotcakes so don't delay putting your groups together for that show too. Gloria has arranged all the music for the musical version of A Christmas Carol we will be doing in Elizabeth City. Both our Christmas shows will knock you off your feet! We can't wait.

This is the season when folks order a lot of Mrs. Cromley's Peanut Clusters to mail as Christmas gifts so be sure to place your order early. We can ship anywhere in the country. You can CLICK HERE to go to the order form on our website...or, you can simply call Nathan in the Rocky Hock box office and he can take your order right over the phone.

See you soon in Edenton AND Elizabeth City.

Rocky Hock Playhouse Events...

November 16 - December 17, 2013

Who were Mary and Joseph? Who were their parents, friends, and relatives? How did they fall in love? What was it like when Gabriel appeared to both Mary and Joseph? How many questions did they have? The answers, the songs, the stories, the romance, and the miracles, all go on and on. The greatest gift of love and peace the world has ever known was Jesus. The "newborn king" was born that night when heaven came down! Join the thousands who say, "It just isn't Christmas till we've been to the Rocky Hock Playhouse."

All performances in Edenton are lunch/dinner theatre events. Ticket prices include both the buffet and performance.
